

TUITION ASSISTANCE POLICY

1. Parents, legal guardian or youth requesting scholarship assistance must be members of Community Praise Center SDA Church, contributing regularly to the tithe and offering and be active in a ministry at CPC or the Home and School committee.
2. Traditional CPC scholarship assistance will continue to grades preK-12 according to policy. Additional assistance is now provided to higher Adventist education in the form of matching scholarships not to exceed $200 per student request. These funds in every case are on a first come first serve basis.
3. Students receiving assistance from another source may have the amount of their assistance from CPC reduced, at the discretion of the scholarship committee.
4. Funds will be distributed two times annually (generally September 30 and January 30). Checks will be made payable to the school and delivered to the school.

The Tuition Assistance Application must be completed each semester to receive assistance. The deadline for 1st semester is August 15, 2006. The deadline for second semester is December 31, 2006. Applications submitted after the deadline will be considered for the next semester only. All applications may be mailed to:

Community Praise SDA Church
1400 Russell Road
Alexandria, VA 22301
ATT: Home & School Scholarship Fund

5. Assistance will be offered up to 50% of the annual tuition rate per child. There is a limit of $1,200 per child.

CPC reserves the right to adjust the amount of assistance to each family based on individual circumstances and available funds.
